What fees do we charge?

We may charge clients fees for financial advice. We will tell you what the fee is before you accept any advice from us or our Advisers. We will charge fees that are payable by you the client when our advice is followed, accepted and the insurance policy is purchased. The fees we charge are for our service, placement, implementation and administration of the insurance policies that you choose to accept and purchase. The total fees payable may increase with the number of insurance policies that you choose to purchase.

The fees are payable by you and are due by the effective date of the policy which is on the invoice.

How do we act with Integrity?

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above our own, I follow an advice process that ensures recommendations are made on the basis of your individual goals and circumstances. I complete annual and ongoing training about how to manage conflict of interests and a register of interests is maintained. Neville Newcomb Insurance Brokers monitor these registers and provides additional training where necessary. Neville Newcomb Insurance Brokers perform an annual review of our compliance programme.

You should be aware there are potential conflicts of interest that you the Client may need to take into consideration when you decide to seek and accept financial advice from us, I will make you aware of any conflicts when giving advice.

How do we get paid for the financial advice and Products that we provide to you?

Neville Newcomb Insurance Brokers and our Advisers do not receive any commission or other incentives for giving Financial Advice. Neville Newcomb Insurance Brokers and our advisers do receive commission when the client accepts our financial advice and purchases an insurance policy. The commission is paid by the Insurer (product provider's) for the insurance business on each insurance policy that the Client purchases. The commission is paid to us and our Advisers and can be between the range of 0-30% of the insurer portion (total premium of the Insurance Policy less government levies and taxes).
